THE MACHINE TREKET

Mr. Joseph Simon, who has long been striving for a nomination for the mayoratity, has at last attained his desire. This has long been with him a leading ambition. As a momber of the state sound be last year exerted himself to secure, the changes his the charter, so that in cose he should succeed in his desire to become mayor, he would have increased powers in his hands. It has been yell sait of him that "the same influence which induced him to vote for a measure which collecularates all the power of the rivy in the hands of one man, is now expanded by the himself." Against his personal character we being no allegations. It is sufficient to say that the influences which have secured for him this norsination, and It is sufficient to say that the influences when the movement for him this moving from an analysis of the same of the same to entreme the entreme to entreme that their government, under such influences with the what it ought to be.
